

Introducing Board Director Kevin Hammond

Kevin Hammond is an experienced C-Level executive and Certified Professional Leadership trainer & Resilience Coach. Certified by Ken Blanchard Companies in Situational Leadership; he was Managing Director of one of the Ken Blanchard Company's non-profits offering employee benefits to help build sustainable work environments through team building and situational leadership training to help people win at work and make a positive difference in our communities. Ken Blanchard core clients are fortune 100 companies with 10,000 employees or more.

As former Managing Director and Founding board member of Target Solutions he created leadership teams and staff development to train over 4000 fire agencies offering OSHA required training to First Responders. Currently as the Resilience Manager at FirstWatch Solutions, he oversees a team offering mental health and resilience training to prevent PTSD & suicidal ideation to over 500 public agencies in North America with programs recognized by NREMT and CAPCE for EMS recertification for continuing education credits.

Having served in a board capacity for over 30 years in for-profits and non-profits organization, he understands how to work with a diverse group of people to deliver positive outcomes. He holds a a Master Degree in Counseling Psychology and a Bachelor's degree in Finance from University of Southern California -his experience and education pales in comparison to what he has learned from being a husband of over 33 years and raising 3 kids: Kelly, Audrey and Ruby.